Important note for tutoring applicants: The Folds of Honor Children’s Fund Scholarship cannot be used:

- to pay a private individual for tutoring. Services must be provided through an established, licensed tutoring business
- for ACT/SAT prep. The scholarship funds are intended for tutoring in core subjects such as:
 - K-5 math, reading/language arts, social studies and science
 - 6-8 math, English, social studies, and science (can include foreign language);
 - 9-12 math English, social studies, and science (can include foreign language).

Funds are sent in two equal payments to the tutoring institution, not to exceed $2500 per term (August – December and January – May). A check in with required information must be completed before the second half of funds can be sent.

Terms of Use: If offered an award, the Folds of Honor scholarship must be accepted and additional information provided by a set deadline each year. The restricted scholarship must be used for approved educational purposes such as tuition, most fees, required textbooks or approved, required school uniforms. Funds will be sent directly to the educational institution and will not be sent to an individual. Any unused/excess funds are to be returned to Tulsa Community Foundation on Folds of Honor’s behalf.

Folds of Honor, with approval from the Board of Directors, reserves the right to change, cancel, or amend this policy as it deems necessary for the benefit of all awardees.
